Unit 17

* Genesis 3:16-19 * Job 14:1

What is the origin of our trouble?

Trouble is universal to human beings and a significant part of our existence. Much of the Bible is devoted to trouble.

Tick the troubles which you have come across personally or which you have been close to.

"Shalom"

Shalom is the Hebrew word for peace. It is a powerful word which includes completeness, soundness, prosperity, harmony, safety, health and absence of trouble. It also includes spiritual peace even when surrounded by the pressures of this life (Is 26:3). Shalom accompanies righteousness (Ps 85:10). There is no shalom for the wicked (Is 48:18-19, 48:22, 57:18-21)!

Peace is used throughout the Bible as a greeting, a farewell and a blessing (John 20:19, Eph 1:2). Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace (Is 9:6, Luke 2:14, John 14:27).

The teaching of much of the Bible is that we get what we deserve. If we are wicked and disobey God then we bring trouble upon ourselves (Psalms 7:14-16). We also put ourselves outside the protection of God and may be punished or disciplined by him through trouble.

Job's friends were using these arguments to convince him that he must be a sinner. There was a simple solution — he needed to repent.

Were they right or wrong (Job 42:7)? _____

Why? _____

● Job's reply — it's not that simple!

Job was not convinced by his friends' arguments (Job 19:21-22)!

* Job 7:17-21   * Job 9:2   * Job 23:10-12   * Job 31:1-40

What point is Job making in these verses?

Job does not think he is perfect but his suffering is quite out of proportion to his relatively righteous life. He challenges the justice of God. The fact is that many righteous people suffer and their suffering is not simply related to their behaviour (John 9:1-3).

* Job 21:4-16

What further point is Job making here?

This is a common complaint (Psalm 10:2-13, 73:1-14, Jeremiah 12:1-2, Habakkuk 1:2-4, 12-17, Malachi 3:14-15).

● God's reply — you will not always understand!

* Job 38:1-42:6

The book of Job finishes with a declaration of the power, wisdom and justice of God. What was Job's response to this revelation?

Heartsearch

The suffering of God through Jesus is the ultimate answer to trouble.

What trouble do you have at the moment?

Bring it to the father of all comfort and to the son who suffered for you.

• Suffering and persecution

In the New Testament, the idea of suffering mainly applies to suffering for the gospel. Jesus brought trouble upon himself because he faithfully spoke the truth, demonstrated the power of God, helped the needy and exposed evil and hypocrisy (Matt 16:21). For this he was nailed to a cross. All through history righteous people have suffered at the hands of the wicked - it began with Cain and Abel (Gen 4:1-8, Heb 11:4, 1 John 3:12-13, Matt 23:33-36).

As Christians we can expect to experience persecution as we stand for the gospel, righteousness and truth.

- Jesus promised that persecution was part of discipleship (Mark 13:9-13) - this is the meaning of "carrying your cross" (Luke 9:23-27).
- Persecution may come from the world around (John 15:18-21), from earthly governments (Matt 10:17-20, Acts 12:1-3), religious authorities (Acts 5:17-18), and even your own family (Matt 10:21-23).
- Paul suffered much physical hardship, trouble and persecution because he faithfully followed Jesus (2 Cor 1:8-11, 2 Cor 6:3-10, 2 Cor 11:23-28, 2 Tim 2:9, 2 Tim 3:10-12). However he experienced joy and triumph in his sufferings (Rom 5:3, Rom 8:31-

39, 2 Cor 7:4), knowing the power of God and being privileged to share in the sufferings of Christ (Rom 8:17, Phil 3:10, Col 1:24). The sufferings in this world are only temporary, making way for eternal glory (2 Cor 4:16-18).

- We should pray and support those who are being persecuted (Eph 6:19-20). We are called to persevere in persecution (Heb 11:32-12:3) and God has promised to help and comfort us (Heb 13:6).
- The book of 1 Peter is good reading for those who are being persecuted.

• The end of the age

At the end of the age we can expect an increase in general trouble in the world and increased persecution of Christians (Matt 24:1-35, Rev 6:1-17:18). The Bible finishes with the return of Jesus, the destruction of evil and eternal trouble-free existence for the redeemed (Rev 18:1-22:5).

• Learning through trouble

Although trouble is generally a bad thing, it can be used for our benefit. We can learn patience, humility and love, becoming more sympathetic to others as we go through difficult times ourselves. We are encouraged to endure hardship as discipline from our loving father and to use everything that happens as a learning experience of life (Heb 12:4-13). Sometimes going through trouble will bring us to serve God in a new way - don't forget the vows you made when you were in trouble (Ps 66:13-14)! Times of testing can increase faith (James 1:2-4).
